EXPERIENCE

Head of Sales Office · Tipografia Everest, Bucharest, Romania April 2015 – Present

Head of the sales office, reporting to the Commercial Director: the sales agents' reporting, the allocation of work among them and their client visits — alongside a client portfolio of my own.

Tipografia Everest (S.C. Tipografia Everest 2001 S.R.L.), founded in Bucharest in 1994 and based on Bulevardul Timișoara, is a printing house with three decades of experience and a team of over 140 people. It prints sheet-fed and web, offset and digital, with a full range of finishing, and processes some 400 tonnes of paper a month. Its work spans commercial printing, books and publishing, agendas and notebooks, labels and packaging, and art bindery, under ISO 9001 quality, ISO 14001 environmental and FSC chain-of-custody certification. In February 2012 it took over the RH Printing house.

Promoted in April 2015, three years after joining as a sales representative. The role adds the running of the sales office to the sales work itself: how the agents report, how work is allocated, and how sales works with production, dispatch and finance.

- Sales agents: coordinating the agents' daily activity reporting, to the deadlines set by the Commercial Director.
- Work allocation: assigning jobs to the agents together with the Commercial Director or the General Director, so that the workload is distributed fairly.
- Client visits: supervising the agents' visits to clients and securing the resources they need.
- Sales strategy: taking part in planning and implementing the sales strategy, and assisting the Commercial Director in meetings and negotiations.
- Sales and production: coordinating internal projects that improve the flow of information between sales and the other departments, so that orders are planned into production efficiently.
- Management reporting: weekly, monthly and annual sales reports, sales estimates, and analysis reports for the Commercial Director and the General Director.
- Offer turnaround: proposing improvements to the daily work of the sales office so that offers reach clients on time.
- Contracts and approvals: negotiating and signing printing-service contracts, and approving invoice reversals and third-party commissions, within the limits set by the Commercial and General Directors.
- Marketing: negotiating and organising events and campaigns that promote the company's products.
- Own client portfolio: offers, orders, contracts and the client relationship, continued from the previous role.

Sales Representative · Tipografia Everest, Bucharest, Romania February 2012 – April 2015

Represented the printing house to existing and prospective clients — from the price offer and technical advice to the signed contract and the payment collected.

- Client portfolio: answering requests for offers, passing orders into production on the agreed terms, and keeping each client informed of the status of their order.
- New business: identifying and contacting prospective clients, and answering requests from every sales channel in good time.
- Contracts: preparing, negotiating and signing printing-service contracts within the limits set by the Commercial and General Directors.

- Sales plan: a daily analysis of my own sales against the monthly, quarterly and annual plan.
- Collections: following up payments on the agreed terms and taking action on overdue receivables.
- Client due diligence: every new client checked against the payment-incidents register, the Trade Register and the insolvency records before a contract is signed.
- Quality and complaints: client feedback passed to management; complaints recorded in the non-conformity register and followed until resolved.
- New products: following new products and solutions in the field and proposing them for the printing house's offer.
- Market analysis: the competition, the trends in the printing-services market, and each client's own business environment.
